

DEAR JANE

It was december 2008 when the boys of Dear Jane traded their punk and indie sound for two acoustic guitars and a handfull of percussion instruments.

A few months later this results in a strong set of songs that they play live for the first time at one of the popular popfestivals in their hometown Arnhem. During this try/out fase they play other festivals like SonsbeekTheaterAvenue and popvenues like LuxorLive, but also the cafes and small venues got a good taste of Dear Jane.

Their well crafted songs, strong and catchy vocals and guitarparts grab the listener by the hand throught their world of love, misadventures and hope. (Semi) acoustic songs in a mixture of styles like Americana, Folk, Country, Rock and Pop

Crew:

Remco van Rotterdam: vocals, acc. guitar, cajon

Tse Kao: vocals, acc. guitar, telecaster, harmonica, egg
